

BEMP's 2020 Virtual Crawford Symposium: A New Decade of Science, Education, and Stewardship

May 15, 2020 2:30 pm MDT

BEMP's YouTube Channel

0:00	Opening Remarks and Welcome
	Opening Remarks	Dr. Kim Eichhorst: Co-Director - BEMP
	Land Acknowledgement	Liz Gallagher: Rio Grande Phenology Trail Coordinator - BEMP
1:28	Student Presentations
	Monthly Monitoring at Bosque Farms	Alicia Chavez, Ryan Mitchell, Jatin Freeman, and Tibius Wallace -The International School at Mesa del Sol
	BEMP Adventures through Horizontz	Jessy Montoya - Desert Ridge Middle School
	Possible Dietary Shifts Between Migratory vs. Resident Birds	Tiara Sibley - Amy Biehl Charter High School
	Isotopic Analysis of Porcupine Diets	Mikayla Ranspot - Amy Biehl Charter High School
	Workshop to Mentoring – Building a Mentoring Opportunity	Parker Johnson and Christy J. Mancuso, PhD - Eldorado High School and UNM
	My BEMP R.A.P.	Rich Wagner: BEMP Undergraduate - UNM
	Sympoiesis: Art & Ecology	Hollis Moore: BEMP Graduate Student - UNM
34:12	Professional Presentations
	New Mexico's Middle Rio Grande: Still Kicking After All These Years	Paul Tashijan - Audubon New Mexico
51:01	Fishy Climate Reading	Katara Dodson-Sands - Alice King Community School
	Closing Remarks	Kim Fike: Science Manager - BEMP

BEMP's Featured Partners:

Sympoiesis: Art & Ecology, Bosque School 6th Grade Monthly Monitoring, CAVU-Climate Action Voices Unidos, Valle de Oro National Wildlife Refuge, Friends of Valle de Oro, Abq Backyard Refuge Program, City Nature Challenge, Sierra Club, Luquillo LTER – Sevilleta LTER Virtual Symposium, Climate Change in Dry Lands-SEV LTER, Middle Rio Grande Endangered Species Collaborative Program, Rio Grande Phenology Trail, Fishy Climate (buy it here, more about the artist here), WEST, Albuquerque Sign Language Academy, Pueblo of Sandia

BEMP's Crawford Symposium is generously supported by:

